The Princeton Forum on Youth Ministry is being offered in two locations in 2012! Join us in Santa Barbara, CA, January 23–26 or in Princeton, NJ, April 23-26, 2012.

Engaging, reflective, and theologically substantive, the Princeton Forums on Youth Ministry are an uncommon mix of practical and theological exploration of ministry with young people. The theme for this forum is CREATE! Join us in asking the most pressing questions in youth ministry with expert practitioners and theologians as we explore how technology, theology, recreation, and the arts enliven and enrich youth ministry. Experience renewed energy for ministry as you build vocational friendships, stretch your imagination, and give Sabbath to your soul.

Details and registration will be available in August at www.ptsem.edu/iymp or call the Institute for Youth Ministry at 609.497.7914.
