Biographical Information

Beverly lived most of her life in New England. She's had 3 overlapping professions over 30 years: psychotherapist (10 years), church retreat/workshop leader (10 years) and Intentional Interim Minister (10 years). Beverly is ordained in the United Church of Christ and currently serving a church in the Presbyterian Church (USA). As a psychotherapist, she provided workshops on personal boundaries for area churches. Trained by Dr. Marie Fortune (FaithTrust Institute) in 2002, Beverly became a boundary trainer for clergy. Currently she is completing her doctoral degree (Louisville Presbyterian Seminary) and designing a curriculum for churches called: Healthy Boundaries: Recovering Our God-Given Limits For the Good of the Church.
